A: I resolved this problem myself. The problem was that I had a really old version of IIS Express installed in: C:\Windows\System32\inetrv\ApplicationHost.config It was a really old version with an old service name (ssl-ep) and a certificate with an old name (autodiscover.midmarket.com) My tests with Internet Information Services (IIS) Manager showed that the certificate had expired. I couldn't accept this award on behalf of all actors and actresses and filmmakers and behind-the-camera people who have ever labored in television. Thank you, so much, to the Television Academy for honoring me. I'm very proud to be here and I thank God every day for having allowed me to work with my wonderful wife, she's also right here.
